  25. to take all necessary actions as the University may determine in cases of emergencies, such as public health emergencies, attack, extreme weather and natural disasters.
- B. Decisions regarding who is taught, what is taught, how it is taught and who does the teaching involve academic judgment and shall be made at the sole discretion of the University.
- C. Other questions of academic judgment and decision-making shall remain in the University's sole discretion. and over which the University has no obligation to bargain. These include, but are not limited to, judgments and decisions regarding:
- the creation, elimination or modification of programs, courses and other curriculum matters;
  - matters affecting instructional software and learning management systems;
  - the content of courses, instructional materials, the nature and form of assignments required including examinations and other work;
  - class size;
  - grading policies and practices;
  - matters affecting the creation and administration of course evaluations
- D. Nothing shall preclude the University from having supervisors, managers and non-bargaining unit employees from performing bargaining unit work.
- E. Any exercise of management rights shall be consistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement. No action taken by the University with respect to a management right above shall be subject to the Grievance and Arbitration Procedures unless the exercise of such right violated an expressly written provision of this Agreement.
- F. The above enumeration of management rights is not exhaustive and does not exclude other management rights not specified above. The University, in not exercising any function hereby reserved to it in this Article, or in exercising any such function in a particular way, will not be deemed to have waived its right to exercise such function or preclude the University from exercising the same in some other way.
